of Portsmouth and Southampton, which vessels can enter in safety at all times and in any weather, make this the most eligible route at all times and in any weather, make this the most engine route to the South of England. The passage from Capele Heve to Benbridge Point, Isle or Wight, is effected in less than 10 hours; the remainder of the voyage is inland navigation, abounding with picturesque views of the Isle of Wight, Portsmouth, and Spithesia. and passing through the beautiful scenery on the Southampton river.

Every information given on application to Messrs. Galignani, rue Vivienne, Paris; M. Callaghan, Hôtel de Grand Pelican, fue Malpalu, Rouen; or M Chanoine, Agent, Hôtel de Londres, Havre.

FROM DIEPPE TO BRIGHTON,-The commodious and powerful Steam Packet, The RAPID, R. SHARP, Commander, Jurthen 150 tons, 70-horse power, will leave DIEPPE for BRIGHTON ON Friday next, Oct.

29, at two o'clock in the morning.

This Packet, fitted with superior accommodations, is propelled by engines of great power, and low pressure, as recommended by the 5th Report of the House of Commons; has separated for the Ladies. The passages are mended by the 5th Report of the House of Commons; has separate Cabins and female attendants for the Ladies. The passages are usually performed in from 8 to 10 hours. The road from Paris to Differe is through the most beautiful and interesting part of France, and the distance to London is 90 miles nearer than by any other route. The weather is particularly mild for the Season, but the winds have been most borsterous and the pains heavy - in England so much so as to occasion considerable floods, such as have not been known for many years.

In the Political words - a Wast between Nathan other Porte seems inevitable - Ireland is in a dreatfule state, & seemes of Cruetty are daily taking place, which would disgrace a horde of the withest savages.

The Farmers in England are meanly ale ruined, & where their distrepes are to end one knows. The South Americain Colonies have now emanestpaled themselves, and the mother country seems very well disposed to cut the throats of each other. - - Spain being in a very distracted state of Postugal not much better.
